Officials to discuss Superfund dredging in New Bedford Harbor

NEW BEDFORD — Environmental officials are planning to update the public on the progress of dredging projects in New Bedford Harbor.

The public meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. on Thursday at the main branch of the Public Library, 613 Pleasant St. Officials from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the state Department of Environmental Protection and the New Bedford Harbor Development Commission will report on navigational dredging efforts, the Superfund harbor cleanup, and Confined Aquatic Disposal cell technology.

The EPA will also hold an informal drop-in meeting at 10 a.m. the same day to update the public on the Superfund project. That meeting will be held at the agency's trailers on Sawyer Street.
